Mayor James R. Barberio And The Township of Parsippany-Troy Hills Open Nominations For Senior Citizen Award

The Parsippany Office on Aging is Accepting Applications for the 2023 Socolowski Senior Citizen of the Year Award

July 26, 2023, PARSIPPANY, NJ - Do you know an older Parsippany resident who has gone above and beyond volunteering their time to improve the lives of others? Then don't delay in nominating them for the "2023 Socolowski Senior Citizen of the Year Award." Mayor James R. Barberio and the Township of Parsippany's Office on Aging will be honoring two resident volunteers, aged 60 and over, who have offered their time and experience to worthwhile projects, causes, or activities which enhance people's lives. The nominee may be employed, but only volunteer work will be considered. Thanks to the Estate of Jean D. Socolowski, monetary prizes will be awarded to the winning volunteers.

Applications are available at www.parsippany.net under the Health and Human Services Department Forms section, by calling 973-263-7163, or by visiting the Office on Aging at the Parsippany Senior Center, 1130 Knoll Road, Lake Hiawatha, NJ, 07034. Completed applications can be faxed to 973-299-1349, emailed to mpicone@parsippany.net, or submitted by mail or in person to the above address. Applications will be accepted through September 30, 2023.

Parsippany Township employees, past winners, and elected officials are not eligible. Prior year's applicants who did not win are encouraged to apply again.
